Johnson For Showdown On Filibustering

Offer Indicates He Is Sure of Beating A Counter Attack

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson said today he was agreeable to a quick showdown on a move to substitute a stiffer proposal for his own compromise anti-filibuster plan.

The Texan's offer indicated he was confident of mustering the votes to beat back a counter-attack planned by strategists for a bipartisan bloc of senators advocating a tougher clamp-down on filibusters.

Johnson outflanked them Wednesday by advancing his compromise at the opening of the new Senate session before they had a chance to offer their own proposal.

As the Senate plunged into the rules scrap today, Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.), the assistant majority leader, defended Johnson against charges of high-handed tactics.

Mansfield said there had been "talk of hijacking and blackjacking" because Johnson had jumped the gun on the bipartisan coalition by acting first.

But Mansfield said he wanted to make it clear that Johnson's move would not prevent the Senate from voting on any and all alternate proposals for revising the Senate's anti-filibuster rule.

New Metal Signs At Elementary School Buildings

All Sedalia elementary schools now have new traffic signs stationed in the main-traveled street in front of the buildings calling attention to the zone being a school zone and the need for the drivers of motor vehicles to drive slowly.

The new signs are metal, with the outline of a police officer holding up one hand. The sign in front of him reads "Slow School Zone." The police officer is smiling and the signs are attractive warnings, the same as are being used through out the country at various schools.

The signs were made available by the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Sedalia, of which Roy C. Woods, is president. They were presented to the Sedalia police department for use at all schools. The signs on the back side have a Coca-Cola sign on them.

There are 18 of the signs, all of which have already been distributed to the schools, both public and parochial.

TRAPPED 12 HOURS—Leslie Stafford, 40, is lifted by bucket from a 24-foot-deep hole in which he was trapped for more than 12 hours. Stafford, rushed to the hospital, appeared to be in good condition. He was working in a cesspool when the walls collapsed. (AP Wirephoto)

DeGaulle Is Given His Oath

General Takes Office, Names Debre Premier

PARIS (AP)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle became today the first President of the Fifth French Republic and appointed Michel Debre as Premier.

In taking the oath of office, De Gaulle declared that during his seven-year term he would, if need be, impose what the public good demands.

Debre is an ardent Nationalist, a longtime Gaullist, and chief architect of the new constitution establishing the Fifth Republic.

Debre, who will be 47 in a week, was justice minister in De Gaulle's interim government. Naming Debre was De Gaulle's first major act after he assumed the presidency of the republic shortly after noon. De Gaulle rode triumphantly down the Champs Elysees, then returned to his Elysee palace and summoned Debre.

Debre, a lawyer and administrative specialist, will share executive duties with De Gaulle. The new constitution gives most effective power to the president.

The constitution provides that the president name the premier. There is no provision, as previously, for the National Assembly to confirm him in office.

Cries of "Vive de Gaulle" came from thousands lining the broad Champs Elysees as he drove up the avenue in an open car after taking office. The 68-year-old wartime Free French leader stood stiff and erect despite a brisk wind and nippy 42-degree temperatures.

At the Arch of Triumph De Gaulle and retiring President Rene Coty symbolically rekindled the eternal flame that marks the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

"The first among Frenchmen is henceforth first-ranking man in France," intoned outgoing President Rene Coty.

A 21-gun salute boomed across the Seine as diminutive Gen. Georges Catroux reached up to hang the gold necklace of office around the neck of his towering World War II comrade and commander.

The brief ceremony in the presidential Elysee Palace marked the end of the largely figurehead role which French presidents had filled under the Fourth Republic. The new constitution De Gaulle rammed through last summer converted the office into one of real power, along the lines of the U.S. presidency.

Coty, the beloved, 76-year-old outgoing chief of state, told his solemn-faced successor: "The people of France, so divided on the surface, have found around you their profound unity...."

Overstreet Appointed To Seven Committees

Representative Milton Overstreet, Pettis County, was appointed on the following legislative committees by the speaker of the House of Representatives, Richard Ichord, Thursday morning:

Appropriations, roads and highways, agriculture, Social Security and chairman of state properties. Under the latter committee three bills are set up for hearing next Wednesday as follows: A proposal to move the Mark Twain monument from Florida, Mo., to Twain's original birthplace; a proposal to erect a state building for parking purposes on the site of the old power plant near the Capitol; a proposal to construct a state office building in Kansas City to consolidate offices scattered about the city now in rental properties.

Speaker Ichord reduced the number of committees from 67 to 42 in an effort to streamline procedures.

The present route is shown in the solid line and the proposed route is shown by the broken line. The purpose of the new route is to straighten out the many dangerous curves now in existence. It will include a new entrance to Sedalia, as shown, but highway department officials say a city route will be retained. Officials estimate the cost of the improvement at $2,778,500.

Police Search For Clues In Sex Slaying

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A methodical police search for clues to the identity of the sex-mad slayer of a young mother was begun today in the neighborhood where her mutilated body was found.

Mrs. Ruth Ann Montague, 32-year-old social worker and the mother of two young children, was found yesterday in her car 13 hours after she left a sorority party. An autopsy showed she was strangled. Two pieces of rope were found nearby.

Her husband, Charles, a 43-year-old laboratory technician, talked to police throughout the night and said: "I want to stay with this until it is cleaned up."

Montague said he was a patient at veterans administration hospital at Danville, Ill., for nearly two years and had been treated for alcoholism and nervousness. He told police he had no idea why his red-haired wife had been killed.

Mrs. Montague's car was found parked across the street from the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Brookman, where the Phi Mu sorority party was held.

About 25 other members were there. Police learned Mrs. Montague left the party shortly after 10 p.m. and was seen to drive away in her car. Police have been unable to determine when the car was brought back.

Police last night questioned a 35-year-old man of Indian descent who reportedly had some trouble with Mrs. Montague in connection with her job as a social worker. Mrs. Montague interviewed welfare applicants at the Missouri State Division of Welfare.

Police said the killer had used "great force" in the strangulation. There was dirt on Mrs. Montague's heels—as if she had been dragged across soft ground. She had on a dress and cloth coat.

Mrs. Montague left the party about 10:15 p.m. Tuesday. Her husband told friends at 1 a.m. that she was missing and police entered the case about 7 a.m. The body was found about noon.

The keys to Mrs. Montague's car were found in her coat pocket. The ignition of the car was off. There was a long-bladed paring knife in the glove compartment which bore no visible blood stains but which was taken to the police laboratory for analysis. Her unopened purse also was in the car.

Mrs. Montague's children are Douglas, 10, and Linda Ann, 9. Police said Montague, who is studying to become a medical technologist at Gradowohl Laboratories here, was given a lie detector test and cleared.

First Appropriation Bills Are Introduced

Record Pace Is Maintained In the House

Committees Arrange Meetings Next Week For Star of Work

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—The first 13 appropriation bills hit the Missouri House of Representatives today as the 1959 legislative session continued its record setting pace.

The bills, totalling $261,599,208 from general revenue tax money, are the first in a series that will put into effect the billion-plus budget for the next two years as outlined in general terms for the legislators yesterday by Gov. James T. Blair.

It was the first time within the memory of the oldest old timers that major appropriation bills had been introduced on the second day of a new session.

Rep. Paul M. Berra (D) of St. Louis, appropriations chairman, got them from the governor's budget staff this morning and called the first committee meeting to take a preliminary look at them immediately after today's brief House session.

On the same hurry-up schedule, 16 house committee meetings were called for the first three days next week to start work on the mass of bills introduced today and yesterday. House leaders said committee work would constitute most of the House action for the next four weeks.

The senate was in recess today as more than half the members went to St. Louis to attend funeral services for the wife of Sen. Michael Kinney, dean of the Assembly.

A detailed breakdown on the appropriation bills introduced today will not be available until the governor's complete budget is sent up to the lawmakers next week.

Berra figured the 13 carried more than a billion dollars altogether, including both state and federal funds.

But he could not come up with specific amounts for individual institutions and agencies because the governor's budget figures were not yet available in detail.

The purpose of introducing the money bills before anyone knew what was in them was to get them formally into the hands of the appropriations committee so it can start hearings next week.

The note of urgency stemmed from the realization of members they have a lot of work to do in the next five months to dig up in tax increases recommended by the governor.

He told them yesterday that much will be needed to finance the program he outlined.

No general tax increases were proposed except a two-cent boost in the gasoline tax to five cents.

Three Sedalians Leave For Army Induction

Bid by Organized Labor

Legislature Scene Of Test of Power

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Organized labor chose yesterday's opening of the 1959 Missouri Legislature to begin a test of its power.

Never before on opening day has a bill been introduced to repeal the state's Utility Anti-strike Act passed in 1947.

This time John I. Rollings of St.

Louis, president of the merged AFL and CIO in Missouri, said labor has the strength to pass the repealer in both houses. Efforts to repeal the King-Thompson Act have been made every session since 1947.

After 10 years out of the Legislature, Rep. R. J. King, co-author of the original bill, is back.

In 1947, as Republican floor leader and a representative from Franklin County King teamed up with the Republican speaker, Rep. Murray Thompson of Webster County, to sponsor the act. It prevents stoppage of utility services either by lockout or strike.

It permits the governor to take over in the name of the state. Ever since organized labor has been embittered, especially against a section which strips away a union worker's seniority if he refuses to work for the state.

The Missouri supreme court has upheld most of the act. The House received more than 30 bills on yesterday's first day. The Senate received 21.

Many were to implement recommendations of Gov. James T. Blair.

Others would: Create a state aeronautical commission which could tax and regulate pilots, aircraft and airports who levy a tax of three cents a gallon tax on aviation fuel.

Establish a commission to study Missouri's tax situation. Study and recommend an insurance code for the state.

Move the primary election date from the first Tuesday in August to the first Tuesday in June. Raise welfare payments. Regulate the use of radioactive materials.

Provide more parking for legislators, state workers and visitors around the Capitol. Permit the state to lease buildings for office space.

Permit revocation or suspension of the license to drive of any 16-year or 17-year-old who is convicted of a violation involving a moving vehicle.

Restaurant Sold To Operators Of A Former Cafe

Beverly's Restaurant has been sold by the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin H. Carl, to Mr. and Mrs. Thurlow Puckett, who formerly operated the Puckett's Cafe in Sedalia. The Puckett's first came to Sedalia in 1937 and operated their business at Second and Lamine until three years ago when they sold it to Dean Minger, and went to Springfield to reside. They returned here the first of the year and are now living at 314 South Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl, native Sedalians, expect to stay in Sedalia. Ten years ago they opened their first restaurant at Sixth and Ohio, and named it Beverly for their young daughter. They were located at Sixth and Ohio for five years and then went in the new building, 1705 West Broadway, still keeping the name of Beverly's. They were there five years, too.

Now Beverly has grown up, finished her education and is teaching first grade in Raytown, and Mel and Emma Carl feel it time to take a little time off to rest and do just what they want to do. Right now they have no plans, and don't expect to do anything for a couple of months, at least.

Sedalians Studying Jointly-Operated Jail

Councilman Earl Paxton, chairman of the Sedalia City Council police committee, and Chief of Police Ralph Hamlin motored to Springfield Wednesday, where they visited the county jail.

The Green County jail is operated jointly with the Springfield police department, both city and county prisoners being held there. Plans are being discussed by the City of Sedalia with the Pettis County Court concerning the possibility of combining the jail use here.

The Sedalians studied the method of operation and are to report to the mayor and City Council, who will in turn report to the county court on the operation.

Wife's Action Saves Costello From Drug Death

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Quick action by his wife prevented Joseph G. Costello, a central figure in the Greenlease ransom case, from dying of an overdose of a drug.

Costello, a former convict who is scheduled to start a 30-month prison sentence Tuesday, took the barbiturate at his home Monday, police said today.

But his wife, Barbara, forced him to drink coffee and kept him awake until he reached a hospital, where his stomach was pumped.

Mrs. Costello said she was watching her husband closely because of his despondency over the prison sentence, for conspiracy to violate the federal firearms act.

Costello, head of a cab company, was in serious condition today at the hospital.

Costello became a central figure in the ransom case because of his association with former policeman, Louis Shoulders, who served a prison term for lying to a federal grand jury.

Costello was found guilty of transporting three new revolvers from Illinois to Missouri.

Game Continues Despite Serving Of a Summons

NEW YORK (AP)—A bingo game sponsored by a Bronx church went on as scheduled Wednesday despite the serving of a license suspension summons while the game was in progress.

The Church of the Holy Resurrection, the first group in the city to get a bingo license under a new state law that became effective here Jan. 1, was the first to suffer license suspension.

It proved a disturbing Christmas Day for the church, whose Ukrainian Orthodox congregation was celebrating the holiday under their ancient calendar.

The license suspension stemmed from a bingo game conducted under auspices of the church last summer. During that game three women won $1,000. They complained they never received the money.

Church officials said the lay operator of that game was responsible for nonpayment, not the church.

As the bingo session got under way Wednesday, Edward Doyle, assistant license commissioner, attempted to hand the summons to the Rev. Walter M. Propheta, dean of priests at the church.

The Rev. Mr. Propheta ignored the summons, and Doyle placed it on the clergyman's knees. It was brushed to the floor.

Official action against the church had been taken Tuesday night. The summons calls for the clergymen to appear in Magistrate's Court Jan. 22.

Near Normal Weather In Nation Today

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Near normal weather returned to most of the nation today, marking an end of the season's worst and longest cold wave.

Temperatures generally were at around seasonal levels, with higher than normal marks in some areas.

Wet weather dampened the Northwest coastal sections for the fourth straight day and rain, drizzle, or snow spread across wide areas in the eastern third of the country.

Another surge of cool air moved through the West Coast Wednesday night, spreading rain into the San Francisco Bay region and across eastern sections of Washington and Oregon. Heaviest falls, mostly more than one inch, were confined to coastal sections.

Light snow fell from Minnesota to New York while warm air flowing northward from the Gulf produced a broad belt of low clouds, rain, fog and drizzle from the central Gulf Coast into the mid Mississippi and lower Ohio valleys.

Heaviest rains were in the lower Mississippi Valley, with falls of about one inch. The wet belt was expected to spread eastward during the day, extending from Georgia into Virginia. A mixture of light snow, freezing drizzle and drizzle was indicated along the Ohio River into interior sections of northern Virginia and southern Pennsylvania.

The biggest warming trend was reported east of the Mississippi River. Cold north winds which hit the Northeast diminished and skies were mostly clear in the Atlantic states.

Cooler air that moved into the northern Plains and Rockies was felt as far south as the southwest Desert region and northwest Texas.

Marie Torre Praised For Serving Term

JERSEY CITY, N. J. — Marie Torre, who went to jail rather than reveal the source of an item in her radio-TV column, has received more than 500 letters praising her for her stand.

This was made known Wednesday by the 34-year-old newspaperwoman's husband, TV producer Hal Friedman, who visited her at the Hudson County Jail here. Friedman said his wife had received only one letter critical of her position.

She misses her two infant children, Friedman said, but is otherwise cheerful. Miss Torre shares with other prisoners the candy and fruit sent her by well-wishers.

Friedman was accompanied to the prison by Oaden Reid, former president and editor of the New York Herald Tribune, and several personal friends of the columnist. Miss Torre writes for the New York Herald Tribune syndicate.

She chose a 10-day jail term rather than reveal the source of an item she wrote about singer Judy Garland, saying she hoped the move "will lead to legislation protecting a newspaperman's sources."

Just such legislation was offered the House in Washington Wednesday.

Rep. Francis E. Dorn (R-Ky) introduced a bill exempting newspaper, radio and television reporters from being compelled by federal courts to reveal their sources, except in cases affecting national security.

Dorn said his bill would extend to the federal courts a recognition of newsmen's privilege already provided by law in 12 states.

He said the legislation would facilitate newsgathering and "give further legal recognition to the best journalistic ethics which provide for the protection of confidential news sources."

Support for legislation of this type came Wednesday night from the New York County Council of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Some 350 VFW members passed a resolution at a special meeting calling for laws to protect newsmen who find themselves in Miss Torre's position.

The resolution specifically named national security matters as an instance in which such exemption should not be granted newsmen.

When Boss Yells Everybody Jumps

NEW YORK (AP) — When the boss yells, everybody jumps, stands at attention or, as in this case, lies down.

Augustus C. Froeb, senior trustee of the Marlboro branch of the Lincoln Savings Bank of Brooklyn — 75, but still sprightly — sailed into the bank Wednesday and yelled:

"Everybody lie down on the floor!"

So everybody — all eight employees and four customers — lay down on the floor.

Charles Roppolo, 40, chief clerk, said the burglar alarm. He didn't recognize Froeb, who was wearing dark glasses.

Two weeks ago four gunmen had robbed the bank of $72,000 and employees were still jittery.

Soviet Scientists Now Figure Mechta In Orbit Around Sun

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Scientists figure the space rocket Mechta is now in orbit around the sun. They predict it will reach its top speed of 72,000 miles per hour next Wednesday.

They expect the peak velocity to be reached when the missile gets to the point nearest the sun, a distance figured at about 91½ million miles, in its elliptical orbit.

"At that moment it will reach its maximum speed of more than 32 kilometers (about 20 miles) a second," the official Soviet news agency Tass said.

This will be nearly triple the speed at which the rocket was launched last Friday.

The missile was hurled clear of the earth's gravitational field to become the solar system's first artificial planet.

According to Soviet calculations, the rocket Wednesday had gone more than 621,000 miles on a direct line from the earth. Tass said this distance between earth and Mechta would increase at "a terrific pace since the earth and the artificial planet are diverging in the cosmos."

The Soviet reports on the rocket's position and what it is doing now are all based on calculations. Radio contact was lost Monday when the rocket's radio batteries gave out, and it is too far away from the earth to track with optical instruments.

But Soviet scientists say the rocket may come close enough to the earth in the remote future for observation.

Prof. V. Dobronravov, a nuclear physicist, said in a radio broadcast Wednesday the rocket was big enough to have been manned if the Soviets had so desired.

"The rocket is of such considerable dimensions and weight that accommodations for a living being — that is, a man — could have been arranged in it," he said.

If a man had been aboard, he never would have returned to earth. Anatoly A. Blagonravov, a member of the Soviet Academy of Sciences, told newsmen Tuesday that the time of the first manned rocket flight depends on how soon the problem of survival during reentry into the earth's atmosphere is solved.

Blagonravov was quoted in a Capetown, South Africa, newspaper today as saying the Soviets expect to land a rocket — presumably unmanned — on Venus and Mars in June, and to follow this up by sending men to the two planets.

Wesley Church Is Out of Debt After Six Years

The Wesley Methodist Church, which, including the purchase of the lot, the building of the church and the furnishing, cost $275,000, is completely out of debt. This was accomplished in about six years.

Starting in 1952, with a sum of $32,000 in a building fund, a big meeting was held at the Fifth Street Methodist Church to start a drive for funds. This first drive brought in $115,000. The groundbreaking was in May, 1954, and the first outer structure of the church was built.

The second financial drive in 1955 at which time $90,000 was netted and the contract for the interior and finishing of the church was let. A sum of $70,000 was borrowed from the Commerce Trust Co. the building was completed and the congregation moved in to the new church in August, 1956.

The entire indebtedness of the building was paid off on Jan. 1, 1959.

The Wesley Methodist Church congregation is now going ahead with plans to build a new parsonage, and the property across the street south has been purchased for that purpose. The church is located on the northeast corner of Broadway and Carr.

Secrecy Conceals Evil

Some people have an idea newspapers want secrecy provisions of the Missouri juvenile code removed for the purpose of scandalizing youthful law offenders and their families.

The fact is newspapers have no morbid desire to humiliate teen agers in trouble, or their families. The fact is newspapers voluntarily withhold names of initial offenders in cases of minor law infractions. But there are cases of law violations so flagrant by those who repeatedly commit crimes that they should come to public attention. This certainly is in the interests of public safety. It is also a deterrent to those youthful offenders who do have a fertile seed or two of respect for the law that may germinate into rehabilitation.

The law now makes it illegal to use names of offenders 17 or under on the premise that if the crime is kept secret from the public this will prove helpful in the rehabilitation of such boys and girls.

Secrecy provisions shield also those who repeatedly flaunt the laws. These youngsters know it, and joke about the protection given them against publicity, particularly when they violate the speed and other traffic laws. We've had instances of this in Sedalia.

We do not think the secrecy provisions of Missouri's present juvenile code provide the rehabilitation features intended when it was enacted. Actually it places an undue burden on the police and puts serious obstacles in the path of law enforcement. Under present provisions a teen ager can burglarize a store or commit a more heinous crime and if caught by the police all they can do is turn him over to the juvenile authorities. He can't be subjected to publicity, can't be finger-printed, can't be held in jail unless under orders of the juvenile court.

This is not to imply all provisions of the juvenile code are wrong and should be cast out. But it does need a working over during the current session of the Missouri legislature to remove the blanket immunity that now covers youthful offenders of the law.

Persistent objections over such sections of the code have arisen during the past year to such an extent that Governor James T. Blair himself has been impressed with the necessity for a modification of the code respecting secrecy provisions.

We commend the governor for his forthright stand in a message to the newly convened Legislature in which he stated:

"I have adhered to the belief that the public has a right to information about public business. I believe the press has a meritorious case in calling for elimination of the secrecy provisions of the juvenile code. I recommend that the juvenile code be modified so that it no longer infringes upon the principle of freedom of information."

Russia Will Put Man Into Outer Space

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—You can look for some more spectacular Soviet achievements in outer space this year. They won't be happy events for the U.S.A., but we had better face them rather than keep on whistling in the dark.

The most spectacular space event on the Russian calendar will be the launching of a man into orbit and bringing him back alive.

The second spectacular event which the Russians have up their scientific sleeve is to fly an atomic plane around the world several times without refueling.

The United States will send Capt. Robert White on a short 20-minute dash 100 miles into space in the X-15 next fall. But we will not be ready to launch a man into orbit until late 1960 or early 1961.

Chief reason for the American lag is administrative failure to see the importance of the missile-satellite program and then spend money fast enough. For instance, the United States still does not have a rocket-launching engine capable of sending a large satellite into outer space. The Russian rocket-launcher has a thrust of 850,000 pounds. The American rocket-launcher has a thrust of 135,000 pounds. This can be combined with the Atlas to get 350,000 pounds, but the Russians can combine their big launchers to get three times as much.

In Huntsville, Ala., last month, rocket experts told me that the United States would soon have a rocket-launcher of power equal to the Russians. They haven't had it so far because the budget was cut. Appropriations were lacking. Almost two years have passed since the administration first knew the Russians had this powerful rocket-launcher (May 1957) yet only recently has the White House authorized funds to catch up.

This is the reason we have only been able to put a pay load of about 30 pounds into the air, while the Russians have launched a satellite weighing one ton and a half. It's the difference between having 850,000 pounds thrust and only 135,000 pounds.

The Still Cuts

The amazing fact is that, despite repeated Russian space triumphs, President Eisenhower recently cut back the following funds for vital weapons:

$605,000,000 for four more Polaris submarines. This is the sub which fires missiles from under the water. Admiral Rickover conceived the idea of using these subs to lurk under the polar icecaps as a threat to Russia in case of war.

$90,000,000 for the solid-propelled Minute Man intercontinental ballistic missile. This is more efficient than the Atlas because it's solid-propelled and can be fired from below ground.

$48,000,000 for the Hound-Dog missile, to be fired from bombers to the ground. This is planned to give an eventual 1,000 miles

MICHIGAN TIMES: Education for Success.—The Little Red Schoolhouse taught little about how our economic system operates, and it didn't matter much. Business was the specialty of businessmen, and if they understood it no one else needed to.

Today, when many decisions which affect the economy are made in politics, every voter needs some economic education so that he can determine what candidates make sense on the subjects of taxes, business regulation, labor, and related subjects.

Wrong guesses based on prejudice or ignorance, can bring on government-made hard times. They can weaken the economy in the cold war. And they can even put the thoughtless voter right out of a job.

Will your child, sometime in his school years, learn what makes our economy tick?

If your school doesn't have such a course, you and other parents should insist that it adopt one. Your child's future and your country's prosperity will depend upon what he knows.

US Labor Leaders, Mikoyan Have a Talk

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — American labor leaders and Anastas I. Mikoyan had lunch and a hot discussion.

But the Soviet deputy premier didn't reveal any secrets while he was the guest of the unionists.

They later gave their account of what happened in a memorandum prepared as a record of the conversation.

One notable stay-away was AFL-CIO President George Meany. But James B. Carey, a long-time fighter against Communists in American unions, was there. He said he thought a frank talk with Mikoyan might have done some good, couldn't do harm.

Besides Carey, president of the International Union of Electrical Workers, others present included Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, and Joseph A. Beirne, president of the Communications Workers of America.

Carey, Reuther and Beirne are also vice presidents of the AFL-CIO.

In part, this was the account of what happened:

Carey blamed the Soviets for trying after the war to dominate the World Federation of Trade Unions, when American unionists got fed up and walked out.

Mikoyan admitted the Soviet trade union movement had made a mistake but said the Americans had, too, in that post-war period. And he added: Two neighbors who had made a mistake shouldn't let a mistake dominate their future. Reuther criticized the Soviet Looking Backward...

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

J. Grant Fry, Cape Girardeau, state commander of the American Legion, gave an address on the Universal Draft Bill at a district meeting of the Legion held at Liberty Park's Convention Hall Sunday.

James P. and Joe Quinn of the Quinn Shoe store, were in St. Louis attending the National Shoe Men's convention and showing of 1934 footwear.

Fifty men in shifts under the CWA were building a rock wall on the south and west side of Broadway School grounds.

Miss Lydia D. Montgomery, principal of Washington School, died at her home, 1701 East 16th, Monday morning, Jan. 8, after an illness of three weeks.

Forty years ago C. M. Long, Pettis County farm agent, was reappointed by the county court for a period of three years.

Mrs. Ethel Murray Simonds, for nine years employed in the office of the secretary of the Missouri State Fair, J. R. Rippey, was elected secretary of the Oklahoma State Fair, being the only woman state fair secretary in the United States.

Attorneys William D. O'Bannon, Holmes Hall and R. S. Robertson were in Jefferson City on professional business.

Robert Willis and Ralph Manker, of the MKT engineering department, made a trip to Mokane on company business.

Friendly foreign diplomats are flabbergasted at the debonair manner in which John Foster Dulles and the White House kissed off the U.S.A. visit of Russia's No. 2 man, Deputy Premier Mikoyan.

Secretary Dulles said it would be "awkward" for him to see Mikoyan, that he would "try" to see him, but he knew nothing of a "date" being arranged in advance.

Dulles has now paused long enough to see Mikoyan in Washington between his arrival from Jamaica and his flight to Canada.

Reason the diplomatic corps are flabbergasted is because they know how difficult it has been to get an allied united front regarding Berlin. They know that the British have been shying away from any showdown over Berlin; so has General de Gaulle. They also know that when an important personality arrives from any country, the State Department takes the initiative to make him feel at home and see the right people. Therefore, they wonder why the Eisenhower administration didn't jump at the opportunity to win over a man who can influence decisions regarding Berlin, rather than give him the cold shoulder.

Note—What members of the diplomatic corps didn't know is that the State Department has been in a dither trying to decide what to do about Mikoyan. They didn't want Eisenhower to see him because Ike has to be briefed in advance. And they couldn't brief Ike because they didn't know what Mikoyan wanted to talk about. They were waiting for Dulles to brief Ike. Difficulty is that Eisenhower leaves all foreign policy to Mr. Dulles, and Mr. Dulles is almost never in Washington.

The World Today

US Labor Leaders, Mikoyan Have a Talk

propaganda line that pictures American workers as wage slaves. Carey went into detail on the evolutionary improvements in the American labor movement since Mikoyan was here in the 1930s.

Mikoyan said Reuther was wrong, that the Soviets recognized the wealth and high standard of living of the American Workers and constantly used this as an incentive and example to the Soviet workers to improve their production.

The labor leaders not only supported this country's foreign policy but said the average American worker did, too.

Beirne chimed in: He said it was impossible to develop faith and trust in Soviet talk about the self-determination of peoples after what the Soviets did to the workers of Hungary.

And Beirne asked: Would the Soviet Union guarantee absolute freedom of movement to any trade union delegation visiting that country? Would such a delegation be permitted to visit prisons and labor camps and talk to workers on the job at home?

Mikoyan denied there were labor camps; guaranteed that an American trade union delegation visiting the Soviet Union would have complete freedom, including freedom to visit prisons; and refused to discuss Hungary on the ground it would take too long.

But when the unionists criticized Soviet policy — particularly they accused the Kremlin of stimulating crises around the world — Mikoyan said the Americans were prejudiced and didn't know the facts of Soviet policy.

The unionists attacked Soviet policy on Berlin, which the Soviets want left defenseless in the middle of Communist East Germany — but Mikoyan responded with this proposal:

That Berlin be made a free city —with free access to it from East and West—and its freedom guaranteed by an international commission, with all countries removing their troops. This has been pretty much the Soviet line.

Reuther argued, as the State Department does, that Berlin is part and parcel of Germany and that the two Germanys should be reunited in free elections, which is what the Soviets don't want.

So, while no problems were solved, the memorandum said the most important result of the luncheon was to show the unity of American trade unionists on Berlin and a unified Germany.

Look Again, Perhaps He's Busier Than You Think

Stop feeling sorry for yourself because your husband "never does a thing around the house" and start counting things that make life easier than it would be if you didn't have a husband.

He earns the living for the family, doesn't he? Well, that's one major responsibility off your shoulders that the widow or divorcee has to carry.

He shares your concern, when a child is ill or is having difficulty at school, doesn't he? Then your worry is lightened more than you realize because it is shared by someone else who also feels responsible for the child's welfare.

Your husband probably stays with the children while you can go to meetings, do errands or shop. The woman without a husband doesn't have that kind of help with the children.

Even if he wouldn't think of picking up a dish towel or pushing a broom around he probably mows the lawn, puts up the storm windows and does other jobs around the house and yard he considers men's work. You may find, if you'll stop to add them up, that he does a long list of such chores.

Does he ever discipline the children? Only a woman who has to take complete charge knows what help it is to be backed up by man's firmness.

Is he, by insurance and savings, providing for the time when he might not be able to look after you? If he is, that's a big worry off your mind — and certainly more important than having him help you in the kitchen.

Has he provided you with a nice comfortable place to live? If he has, shame on you if you feel he is letting you down because he never offers to put the kids to bed or to help you with the dishes.

A Choice Must Be Made

Budget Nudges Conventional Arms Or New Systems

By JOSEPH A. DEAR

Of Our Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower's across the board austerity program for winning the battle of the budget bulge has the Pentagon seething with discontent.

The new budget contemplates holding defense to $41 billion, which is about the same as last year. This means every service will have to tighten its belt and forgo cherished projects.

The Navy will have to settle for a new non-atom powered carrier. The Army will have to postpone rearming its divisions with modern weapons, and in addition, will have to absorb another manpower cut. The Air Force may be forced to choose between manned bombers and missiles.

The argument within the Air Force is a dilly. The weapons research and development people favor an all-out effort to develop missile power. But the top brass, which knows what planes will do and can only estimate the capability of missiles, wants to concentrate spending on planes flown by men.

The top brass has won the first round of this argument. Contracts already have been let for the B-70, a bomber of missile-like performance. But the future of the contract will hinge on the outcome of the argument, which continues unabated.

The Administration austerity program seems to be hitting the Army hardest. Recently, Army Chief of Staff Maxwell Taylor pled for the adoption of a five year, $15 billion weapons modernizing plan.

Russia, so the army argument runs, has completely rearmed its divisions since the end of World War II. We haven't. In fact, at the outbreak of the Korean War our infantrymen were still using a bazooka whose inadequacy was demonstrated in the invasion of Sicily. Brave Americans who used it invariably died.

Army thinking has been colored by the concern of thinking generals with limited war. Yet the Army has long since lost its plea for more air-lift with which to transport its divisions to the battlefield on the outbreak of hostilities.

In overall terms, however, the brush-off of the Army doesn't immediately affect the strategic situation of the country. But the restrictions put upon the Air Force and Navy do.

The President's tight budget will force the Air Force and Navy to choose between conventional arms and new systems. In fact, the services will have to choose from amongst the new systems, none of them fully proven.

There will always be chances for error in such circumstances. A promising system may be discarded prematurely, for example. Or an old system may be retained too long simply to defer a difficult choice.

Remember too that whatever system is built upon a combination of new weapons and devices will become known to the Russians. This knowledge will be useful to them. For once we are committed, they then can proceed to development of a system that capitalizes on the weaknesses in our system. This is an advantage always enjoyed by an attacker.

Altogether President Eisenhower's new defense budget will make the balance of terror, on which the peace depends, more difficult to maintain. The precise nature of some of the choices and problems facing the Air Force because of the new budget will be discussed in another column.

Medical Hysteria Is More Than Emotional Outburst

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.

Among the challenging mental disorders with which physicians are sometimes faced is a condition known as "hysteria."

It should not be confused with the same word when used in such familiar expressions as "don't be hysterical." The latter is usually used when a person becomes emotionally upset and gets into a laughing or crying fit or shows uncontrollable fits of rage.

Hysteria from the medical viewpoint is something quite different.

The patient with true hysteria has disturbances in sensation, perhaps convulsions, or is unable to move certain muscles. Such symptoms, however, are not caused by nervous system like brain tumor or polio.

In hysteria, an attack of convulsions may be started because of some emotional situation. The convulsions allow the victim of hysteria to escape from a difficult situation.

Of course, not all convulsions are caused by hysteria. They must be distinguished from the convulsions produced by epilepsy or from other nervous or mental conditions.

Loss of power and muscular movement or paralysis caused by hysteria may occur in almost any part of the body. It is important, but sometimes difficult, to make a correct diagnosis.

In this form, as in other forms of hysteria, the probable cause is an unconscious attempt to develop an excuse for not facing a difficult situation. The problem which seems insoluble to the person is "converted" into a physical symptom or disability.

The change in sensation often present in hysteria is particularly interesting. The ability of some part of the skin to "feel" is generally lost entirely. A pin can be stuck deep into that area without causing any pain. But the areas involved do not follow the course of the nerves exactly.

The treatment of symptoms of true hysteria is often difficult. The cause of the mental strain must be sought and studied. Gradual persuasion and re-education is helpful for some, but other methods must be used on many occasions.

The successful treatment of hysteria is a challenging and difficult problem. Doubtless the newer methods available to psychiatrists are increasing the number of recoveries.

Like other mental disorders, the ultimate aim of research is to find out more about the causes of hysteria so that it can be prevented or treated promptly and effectively.

Agriculture Division To Boost Farmer

The agriculture division of the Chamber of Commerce of which Everett Stevenson was director during 1958, with W. P. Root, as general chairman, has worked to promote a better understanding between farmers and business people in Pettis County by working with the county extension office and other farm organizations.

Among the things accomplished during the past year was the encouragement of livestock breeders associations to continue to show their stock at the Missouri State Fairgrounds in Sedalia. These shows were attended by the director and chairman of this division and trophies were presented through the agriculture division by the Chamber as follows: (a) a trophy to the owners of the champion in each of six breeds at the Annual Stud and Ram Show and Sale; (b) trophies presented to the owners of the grand champion male and female of the Annual Hereford Cattle Association Show and Sale; (c) a silver vegetable dish presented to the owner of the grand champion female and a silver bread plate to the owner of the grand champion bull at the Fall Show and Sale of the Missouri Polled Shorthorn Breeders' Association held in late October; (d) plaque to owner of the grand champion boar at the National Hampshire Meat Hog Conference; (e) two trophies to the Missouri Spotted Poland China Hog Show and Sale. All of the sales and shows were held here.

This division also served the dinner to the 4-H leaders and members at the annual 4-H recognition banquet held in November, 1958, honoring the 4-H accomplishments during the year.

The agriculture division, too, cooperated with the farm marketing division in observing June Dairy Month, and the ice cream social featured by that division.

Crowd Attends Weekend Meeting Of 'Witnesses'

An enthusiastic crowd of 430 persons attended the highlighted talk of last weekend's assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses at Moberly, R. L. Anderson of New York delivered the discourse Sunday afternoon at the municipal auditorium. Officials of the group said that the subject, "The Watch Tower Society in God's Purpose," evoked wide interest among Moberly area residents.

Anderson opened the discussion by saying, "The Watch Tower Society represents one of 265 groups in America. Our attention will be focused upon it because it has become widely known as the publishers for Jehovah's Witnesses. It has come into further prominence by staging the largest Christian convention ever held in the United States, and conducting a tremendous baptism service for 7,136."

In closing Anderson advised his listeners, "The Watch Tower Society is here to serve you now as a legal instrument dedicated to Jehovah's service."

Convention officials were pleased to announce that nine new ministers were baptized Saturday to signify their becoming ordained Christian ministers. They will take up their ministry in this area.

The rest of the program contained practical training sessions in house to house preaching techniques and also many scriptural facts for use in doorstep sermons.

Gout Origin Not Supported By Modern Medical Report

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Justice has been done at last to several hundred thousand of nature's noble men in America.

They are the victims of gout.

These men share a recurrent agony that in the past has afflicted such giants of mankind as Alexander the Great, Isaac Newton, Martin Luther, John Calvin, Goethe, Francis Bacon, Guy de Maupassant and Benjamin Franklin.

The pangs of gout are excruciating. But almost as hard for its victim to bear are the ridicule and lack of sympathy he receives from his so-called friends. They are sure his ailment is a penalty sent from heaven to punish him for living too fast and too loose. This big lie is struck down formally in a pamphlet "About Gout."

"It has been common belief for centuries that gout was caused by high living—eating rich foods and drinking too much of alcoholic beverages," says the pamphlet. "We now know that 'high living' does not cause gout."

"Gout is a defect in the body's chemistry which frequently leads to an arthritic condition," says the pamphlet. "Gout is never contagious" but probably hereditary. "This metabolic abnormality causes an increase in the amounts of uric acid in the blood and tissues."

The uric acid excess, accumulating in crystalline deposits in cartilage, usually around bone joints, sets up the painful irritation known as gout.

Gout is perhaps as old as mankind itself, and was known to Hippocrates, the father of medicine, four centuries before Christ.

Gout remains one of the most masculine of ailments. No eunuchs and comparatively few women ever get it.

The fact so many famous men were gout sufferers led one 19th century observer to write that the disease is "peculiarly incidental to men of cultivated mind and intellectual distinction." The pamphlet is less flattering: "There is, unfortunately, no modern medical evidence to support this statement."

Gout remains largely a medical mystery. Obesity seems to make it worse. No one diet seems to control it, but its victims generally are advised to avoid foods such as sweetbreads, anchovies, sardines, liver, kidney, brains and meat extracts.

When a man gets an attack, he may wish he'd die—but he won't.

It was decided the executive committee members would be hostesses at the basket dinner held following worship services Sunday, Jan. 4, with a congregational business session also being conducted.

The Ruth Circle will be hostess for the February association meeting.

The Rev. and Mrs. Likely told of their interesting visit to the Presbyterian Children's Home, Farmington, before Christmas, when they took white gifts from the Green Ridge Church. They said the children there were lovable and some wanted to come home with them for a visit.

She asked that the members read the first nine chapters of the "Book of Acts" before circle meeting day. She said the hymn of the year was "To Every Man and Nation."

Hold Meeting At Green Ridge Church

The UPW Association of the Green Ridge Presbyterian Church held its first meeting of the new year all day Jan. 1 at the church.

The new president, Mrs. J. M. Palmer, conducted an executive session at 10:30 a.m. during which the 1959 budget was drawn up and tentative plans were made for the year.

The executive committee members were also hostesses for the contributive dinner served at noon.

At 2 p.m. the retiring president, Mrs. Earl B. Hinken, opened the meeting and presented a short report of the many projects and good work that had been accomplished during the past year.

The pastor, the Rev. Charles Likely, installed the following new officers in an impressive ceremony: president, Mrs. J. M. Palmer; vice-president, Mrs. True Ulmer; secretary, Mrs. Edna Ryan; treasurer, Mrs. Helen Bucher; and the four circle chairmen, Mrs. Loy Smith, Mrs. Earl Hinken, Mrs. Royal Ragar and Mrs. Virgil Ogilvie.

Mrs. Palmer then presided at the business session and presented the budget for 1959 which was approved and accepted. She also spoke of several plans and projects for the new year.

The spiritual life and stewardship chairman, Mrs. L. H. Wadleigh, conducted a short devotional service using the "Year Book of Prayer" program.

The program chairman, Mrs. Hinken, presented an interesting program, telling of the new studies for the new year for both the association and circle programs. She asked that the members read the first nine chapters of the "Book of Acts" before circle meeting day. She said the hymn of the year was "To Every Man and Nation."

The Rev. and Mrs. Likely told of their interesting visit to the Presbyterian Children's Home, Farmington, before Christmas, when they took white gifts from the Green Ridge Church. They said the children there were lovable and some wanted to come home with them for a visit.

It was decided the executive committee members would be hostesses at the basket dinner held following worship services Sunday, Jan. 4, with a congregational business session also being conducted.

The Ruth Circle will be hostess for the February association meeting.

A Coach's Dream

Wildcats Hone Up Around Parlay of Height, Speed

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer
Villanova's Wildcats, scraping away with blunted claws the last couple of basketball seasons, seem to have honed up a dandy this time around with a coach's dream parlay of height and speed.

The Wildcats, one of four unbeaten left in the nation's major school ranks after Wednesday night's 99-85 whipping of Muhlenberg, have rolled over eight straight opponents with a versatile starting lineup that scales down by stages from 6-8 to 5-9. The schedule hasn't been overpowering although Villanova's victims include the likes of Penn, Duke, Temple and Siena. It's more the ease with which they've whipped through it, averaging a 31-point winning margin.

Only Auburn, 9-0 and 20-0 over a two-year span, and St. Bonaventure and Boston University, both 6-0, have managed to match Villanova in getting this far without a defeat.

Three sophomores, 6-8 Jack Driscoll, 5-11 Jim Kenny, and 5-9 Jimmy Huggard, junior George Raveling 6-6, and senior Joe Ryan 6-2 make up the Wildcat starters. Boston U. downed Springfield, 80-55, but St. Francis (Pa.) was toppled from the unbeaten after bagging seven straight, 87-78 by Youngstown.

In other action Maryland clamped down Duke in an Atlantic Coast Conference test, 64-33. Kent State wrapped up Toledo 58-29 in a Mid-American Conference game, and Oglethorpe dropped a 75-15 blanket on West Georgia.

Texas Christian took over the Southwest Conference leadership with a 2-0 record with a 52-45 victory over Arkansas, and burly Utah, a bunch of 200-pounders plus, nipped Montana 71-69 in Skyline Conference play.

Spring Hill, 80-78 over Murray (Ky.), and Centenary, a 87-64 upset winner over favored Tennessee Tech, reached the final of the senior Bowl tournament at Mobile and play for the title tonight.

Oklahoma City, 13th ranked in the weekly AP poll, boosted its record to 9-1 by hitting half its shots in a 90-63 thumping of West Texas State, and injured Terry Boekhorn came off the bench to trigger sputtering Dayton to a 57-47 decision over Duquesne, scoring four points when the Dukes threatened.

Ray Blemker's 20 points led Georgia Tech over Georgia 66-62 in a game that won't count in the Southeastern Conference. Temple and La Salle, a pair that have seen better seasons, swept a doubleheader at the Philadelphia Palestra. Temple topped Pitt 86-73 and La Salle nipped Bucknell 70-68.

Ohio U. downed Marshall 88-84 in a Mid-American Conference thriller as Jerry Wolf scored five points in the last 20 seconds, and Bowling Green won a Mid-Amn test from Western Michigan, 86-65. Holy Cross walloped Rhode Island 102-62 and Fordham outclassed Long Island U. 96-52. Other Eastern matches saw Chuck Darby's 23 points lead Army over Colgate, 80-61, and fast-breaking Navy beat Gettysburg, 39-42.

Boyd Takes Split Decision Over Veteran

CHICAGO (AP) — Bobby Boyd is far from being the best middleweight around, but he can qualify as the best scatter-gun fighter.

The loose jointed Chicago Negro windmilled his way to a split 10-round decision over veteran Holly Mims Wednesday night in a televised bout at Chicago Stadium.

In a way, you felt rather sorry for Mims, ranked No. 7 by the National Boxing Assn. Boyd, who is unranked, fights with the turbulence of a storm cloud.

"I didn't want to bring Mims into Chicago in the first place," fumed Mims' manager, Nick Trotta. "That Boyd swarmed over him, backhanded him, elbowed him, shoved him nearly through the ropes."

Boyd licked the Washington, D.C. battler in Chicago Stadium in 1956 when Bobby was at his peak and ranked No. 1. They fought to a draw in Miami Beach a year ago.

The enveloping tactics of the octopus-like Boyd and his willy-nilly punching was too much for Mims, who constantly was forced into the ropes. But Mims landed the best punches. He staggered his looming opponent with a left hook in the first round, but clinched instead of following up.

He had Boyd a little rocky in the last round with another left and a good combination. But Mims has had only 11 knockouts in 10 years as a pro. Boyd has scored 23. He's got power, but it's just a question of organizing it.

Under the five-point must system, Judge Harold Marovitz favored Mims 47-46. Judge Jim McManus and Referee Joey White each had Boyd on top 47-44. The Associated Press gave it to Boyd 47-46.

Attendance Drop Results in Pay Cut

CHICAGO (AP) — A drop in 1958 attendance has brought a pay cut for most of the Chicago White Sox players.

Chuck Comiskey, the club's vice president, said that most of the 1959 contracts in the mail now, or at their destination, call for salary reductions.

He said contracts are budgeted primarily on home attendance, which was off 338,000 from the 1957 figure. The Sox also were down 365,000 on the road. It is believed that only catcher Sherm Lollar, outfielder Jim Landis and shortstop Luis Aparicio escaped pay cuts.

Hawks Win With Little Help From Bob Pettit

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

When the St. Louis Hawks can win without much help from Bob Pettit, what's to keep them from further padding their handsome 8 1/2 game lead in the Western Division of the National Basketball Assn?

Wednesday night, Pettit, who had been averaging 26.5 points a game, scored only 11. Yet, the Hawks ran away from the Minneapolis Lakers the fourth quarter and won 89-78 at Houston.

In other games, the Boston Celtics increased their Eastern Division lead over New York to 4 1/2 games by walling the Knicks 109-78 and the Syracuse Nationals whipped the Philadelphia Warriors 111-99. This was a doubleheader at Syracuse.

Cliff Hagan, with 22 points, was high for the Hawks. Elgin Baylor topped Minneapolis with 21.

Boston's Tom Heinsohn had 33 points. Ken Sears led New York with 16 points.

Johnny Kerr was the Syracuse star, scoring 26 points. Paul Arizin lead the Warriors' with 22.

Sore Muscle Stops Olmedo Tennis Play

PERTH (AP) — Alejandro Olmedo's sensational Australian tennis campaign came to a temporary halt today when the young Peruvian was forced to withdraw from the Western Australian championships because of a strained stomach muscle.

Playing with United States Davis Cup teammate Barry MacKay, of Dayton, Ohio, in the doubles semifinals, Olmedo walked off the court after playing 12 games and said: "I am sorry—I cannot continue."

At that stage the 22-year-old Olmedo who almost singlehandedly whipped Australia in the Davis Cup Challenge Round 10 days ago, had dropped his third straight service and was in obvious pain. Sweden's UH Schmidt and Jan Lundquist had won the first set 6-3 and were leading 2-1 in the second.

Although no formal announcement was made it was a virtual certainty that Olmedo also would pull out of the singles semifinals Friday, when he is scheduled to play Andres Gimeno of Spain, and rest himself for the Australian nations later this month in Adelaide.

Olmedo's default would send Gimeno into the singles final where he would meet the winner of the match between MacKay and Earl Buchholz Jr. of St. Louis, American teammates. The two Yanks clash Friday.

Olmedo said his troublesome stomach muscle was a chronic one which hurt him several times in California and reappeared in his Challenge Round match against Australia's Ashley Cooper in Brisbane, Dec. 31.

Pearson Wins Rookie Of The Year Award

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro's constituents are not the only ones bursting with pride in this Cuban metropolis today.

Albie Pearson, a pint-sized ballplayer with a rifle arm, two swift feet and a sharp batting eye, had this to say about winning the 1958 American League rookie-of-the-year award:

"It's a mighty big thrill. There were some times during the season that I was a bit disappointed about my hitting. But everything worked out fine. I still think there's room for improvement. A 300 season next year would suit me fine."

Pearson, a 275 batter in '58, received 14 of 24 votes in balloting conducted by the Baseball Writers Assn. of America. Ryne Duren, New York Yankees' relief ace, collected seven and Cleveland right-hander Gary Bell polled the other three. The results of the vote were announced Wednesday.

Machetti Leads Vote In Grid Poll

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Gino Marchetti, Baltimore's destructive defensive end, led the voting for The Associated Press' 1958 National Football League's all-pro team, dominated by the champion Colts and the New York Giants.

Marchetti, an eight-year veteran from the University of San Francisco, was the only unanimous choice among the 41 writers who covered the NFL campaign this season. The 6-4, 240-pounder was one of six Colts named to the two units, one more than the Giants.

Johnny Unitas, the great quarterback; offensive end Ray Berry; offensive tackle Jim Parker; defensive tackle Gene Lipscomb; and fleet halfback Lenny Moore were the other Colts named.

Linebacker Sam Huff led the five Giants named to the all-pro squad. The others were offensive tackle Rosey Brown, center Ray Wietecha, defensive end Andy Robustelli and safetyman Jimmy Patton.

Los Angeles placed three men on offense, guard Duane Putnam, end Del Shofner and halfback Jon Arnett.

Pittsburgh placed two, defensive tackle Ernie Stautner and defensive halfback Jack Butler.

Detroit's Lions also won two places on the all-star squad — linebacker Joe Schmidt and defensive halfback Yale Ary. Cleveland's sole representative was Jimmy Brown, who received all but two of the votes for fullback. Green Bay's honored player was safety Bobby Dillon while middle guard Bill George was the Chicago Bears' man. Offensive guard Dick Stanfel made it for Washington.

Philadelphia, San Francisco and the Chicago Cardinals were not represented.

Unitas, who received all but one of the 41 votes, made the team for the first time. In the championship game with the Giants, he completed 26 of 40 passes for 349 yards, an NFL playoff record. The Louisville alumnus established a record by tossing a touchdown in 25 consecutive league games. He added another TD in the playoff contest.

Moore, recipient of many of Unitas' passes, was also one of the top ground gainers in the league. His tremendous speed and deceptiveness made him a perfect target for the great Baltimore passer.

Arnett, the great broken field runner from USC, and Brown, who wiped out Steve Van Buren's season ground gaining record with 1,527 rushing yards, completed the offensive backfield.

Brown, Putnam and Stanfel, all veterans, are repeaters from last year's team.

UCLA Teams Not Able To Defend Titles

CINCINNATI—The University of Southern California, which last year scored the first team triple in NCAA championship history, today was left with crack baseball, tennis and track squads that cannot defend their titles.

And the USC swimming team, boasting Australian stars Murray Rose and Jon Henricks, is not eligible to challenge Michigan for the NCAA swimming championship because the NCAA Executive Council Wednesday night placed Southern Cal on two years' probation for violation of the NCAA athletic code.

But in an earlier action on the first day of the 53rd annual convention, the NCAA gave new athletic life to football player Don Fuell, key figure in the Auburn recruiting scandal which culminated in NCAA probation for Auburn and Southern Conference disciplinary action which barred Fuell, an end, from participation in SEC athletics.

In a ruling requested by Mississippi Southern College, the council said that Fuell would be eligible to compete in athletics at the Hattiesburg, Miss., school if he transferred from Auburn where he is now a third-semester student. This, in effect, gave Fuell a clean bill of health at any NCAA - member school except those in the Southeastern Conference.

Within a few hours after the ruling, it was announced at Hattiesburg that Fuell had entered Mississippi Southern. He already had been accepted for the winter term, which began Tuesday.

The Southern California action crept up on the 2,200 delegates like a Trojan horse.

It had been expected that Southern Cal, already serving a two-year probation, would be restored to good graces. The previous two-year probation had been due to expire Nov. 13, 1958, and the official announcement that it had done so was expected by the NCAA.

But the probationary period was quietly extended while the committee on infractions continued an investigation into "improper inducements" offered to prospective student - athletes. The names of the athletes, both currently members of the USC football team, were not disclosed because, as the council pointed out in the Fuell ruling, it is interested in penalizing institutions, not individuals.

Over - all, the university is barred from participating in 15 NCAA championship events and 28 cooperating events for the period of one year; from participation in any NCAA-controlled sports television appearances for two years, and it was stipulated additionally that any violation of NCAA requirements during the two-year period may be considered as cause for expulsion from the NCAA.

Mamie Makes A Success Of Corporation

By JAMES BACON
AP Motion Picture Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A. T. and T. may have more capital reserve but it can never match the well-rounded assets of Hollywood's newest corporation — Mamie van Doren, Inc.

The blonde Swede from South Dakota emancipated herself from a steady weekly paycheck a few years ago and says she now grosses a quarter-million yearly.

"Pretty good for a former 4-H Club member," boasts Mamie, who doesn't exactly typify the public conception of the farmer's daughter. But Mamie grew up on a farm near Sioux Falls, coming out here in her early teens.

Universal International signed her five years ago at $200 a week, later raising it to $400. Her then husband, bandleader Ray Anthony, urged her to quit the studio and free-lance.

"Mamie had that farm upbringing," Anthony recalls, "and that steady pay check looked too good to give up."

Mamie says: "I never would have had the nerve to do it if I hadn't had a steady-working husband to fall back on."

But quit she did and her first free lance job at Las Vegas' Riviera Hotel paid her $15,000 a week, more than she earned her entire first year at U.I.

Since then she has made movies here and abroad—she has five unreleased pictures — does movies, TV and now records.

She thinks the recording business is the wildest of all. She signed a contract with Dot Records some months ago. Nothing happened until a few weeks ago when Randy Wood, president of the company, called Mamie at 9 a.m.

He asked her if she could appear on a local TV show called Juke Box Jury that night.

"I want you to plug your new record," said Wood.

Mamie answered: "What new record?"

Replied Wood: "The one you're going to make at 2 o'clock this afternoon."

At 2 p.m., Mamie went into the record session and sang two songs she had never heard of before. Promotion copies were pressed by 6 that night. At 10 p.m., her record was judged a hit by the TV panel.

Like the clown who yearns to play Hamlet, Mamie has long wanted to kick the dumb blonde roles that invariably fall to actresses who look like Mamie.

About Town

Mrs. Blanche Rose, 815 West Third, and her daughter, Mrs. Virginia Rose Moore, have returned from Washington, D. C., where they spent the holidays with their son and brother, Warrant Officer James Rose, who is stationed at the Bethesda Naval Hospital, his wife and children, Bobby and Judy.

On Christmas Eve they attended the candlelight service at the chapel, in which Jim Rose assisted and his son, Bobby, served as a candlelighter. After the service, they were among the guests entertained at a late supper by the two Protestant chaplains and their wives.

GOP Attempts To Terminate Party Feud

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican senators tried today to heal the scars of their party feud by joining in a drive to win choice committee spots for both factions.

Sen. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, leader of the old line Senate GOP forces, said he was conferring with Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas on the possibility of expanding several key committees.

This would mean increasing the size of the foreign relations, armed services, finance, commerce and banking committees, each of which now has 15 members.

Bridges had the public support of Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, who won the GOP floor leadership by a 20-14 vote that defeated Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, candidate of an insurgent bloc.

Joining them was Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel of California, insurgent entry who won the post of assistant leader, or whip, by the same margin over Sen. Karl Mundt of South Dakota, who had been put forward by some of the conservative group.

In the last Congress, which had 49 Democrats and 47 Republicans, the Democrats had only a one-vote margin on most of the Senate committees. On 15-member committees there were 8 Democrats and 7 Republicans.

Under the top-heavy new party lineup of 64 Democrats and 34 Republicans, Democrats could force a 2-1 margin on most of the standing committees. This would mean 10 Democrats and only 5 Republicans on 15-member committees.

The Republican plan would add two seats to each of these groups, one for each party, as a means of providing at least one major committee assignment for each of the three new GOP senators as well as some other Republicans.

The wheat marketing quota program and regulations have not been changed by a recent Texas court case which received considerable publicity in this area, according to information received by the Missouri State ASC office from the Department of Agriculture.

In the case in question — a civil suit to collect marketing quota penalties — a federal judge held that if all wheat produced on a farm is used or consumed on the farm, there is no farm marketing excess subject to penalty. The government is appealing this decision to the U. S. Supreme Court.

"The law provides," ASC Chairman D. G. Monsees said, "that all excess wheat is considered available for marketing and is subject to penalty, regardless of how it is used. The courts have previously upheld this provision, but in the Texas case the court ruled that this interpretation is unconstitutional. This is not a final decision. Pending a ruling by the Supreme Court, we have been directed to continue to carry out the wheat marketing quota program just the same as in the past."

"NURSE TRUCK"—Odd-looking vehicle shown in Napa, Calif., is a "nurse truck." The gun-like projection carries fertilizer from truck hopper to a flexible spout which feeds the fertilizer into the aircraft at rear. The planes then "bomb" the evenly a swath 30 feet wide from a height of about 100 feet. While cost of aerial application is relatively high, it is reported profitable on large spreads. Method offers additional advantage of fertilizing quickly to take advantage of good weather.

CC Membership Division Gets 26 Additions

The membership and finance division of the Chamber of Commerce of which Julius Stohr was director, completed the year with 26 new memberships.

The membership committee, James Askren, chairman, was composed of five members and numerous meetings were held to discuss prospects for memberships and the results of the previous efforts.

The renewal membership committee, of which Mrs. John Welch was chairman, Stohr said, did an excellent job. The goal of this committee was to maintain the present membership total. Thirty- and 60-day statements were mailed to members by the Chamber office.

Ninety-day statements informed the member he was delinquent and would not further receive the services of the Chamber of Commerce. A personal call by a member of this committee was made prior to the ninety-day statement.

The finance committee, of which Harry Naugel was chairman, studied all financial records, made its recommendations, and prepared the budget with the executive committee for the year. A letter, a copy of the program of work, and a copy of the budget were mailed to the entire membership.

Planted Winter Wheat Acreage Slightly Higher

The planted winter wheat acreage is slightly higher than a year ago, but yield and production are estimated below the 1958 levels, according to the first report on the 1959 wheat crop received at the Pettis County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office.

Total seedings of winter wheat for all purposes this fall are estimated at 45.1 million acres — 12 per cent less than the average. A 1959 winter wheat crop of 957 million bushels is indicated compared with 1 billion 180 million bushels the past year.

The crop report indicates that an increased amount of wheat acreage was diverted to the Conservation Reserve program for next year. Nearly four million acres of winter wheat were freed from the 1958 Acreage Reserve and presumably were available for seeding in 1959, the Department of Agriculture points out. A seeded increase of less than one million acres suggests closer grower adherence to allotments as well as a shift of some of the 1958 acres in the Acreage Reserve to the Conservation Reserve for 1959.

The same report indicates that the estimated rye acreage sown for all purposes in the fall of 1958 is 3.9 million acres, 12 per cent less than in the fall of 1957 and slightly below average.

Averts Plan to Mark Grave With Big Oscar

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences has spiked plans to mark man Mike Todd's Chicago grave with a 9-foot-high Oscar.

"The Oscar is protected by copyright," said a spokesman for the academy. "All who receive it sign a receipt they and their heirs will respect this copyright."

He said it could not be used to mark a grave.

Todd's brother, David Goldbogen, had said in Chicago he was planning to erect a two-ton marble statue over the grave.

Todd won an Academy Award Oscar for his movie "Around the World in 80 Days." He died in a plane crash last March 21.

Goldbogen was not available for comment on the academy's statement, but his wife said she did not believe her husband knew of the copyright.

Lessons on Sandbags Given Canyon Citizens

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Lessons in how to lay sandbags are being given homeowners in fire-ravaged canyons where rain running down diked slopes threatens floods and landslides.

The County FG-OD Control District issued sandbags in the Malibu, Topanga and Benedict Canyon areas Wednesday and district engineers went along to demonstrate how they should be laid out to form barriers.

All three canyons were the scene of recent brush fires. Heavy rains earlier this week set damaging mud and rock slides in motion.

The sandbags were handed out as forecasts showed more rains are due in southern California Friday.

The Weather Picture

Weather maps below show the U. S. Weather Bureau's 30-day forecast for the month of January. It is not a specific forecast in the usual sense, but an ESTIMATE of average temperatures and precipitation for the period.

Thirty-day temperature outlook for January calls for below seasonal normals over the eastern third of the nation. Southern Plains and Gulf Coast. Above normal is indicated for the Northern Plains and areas west of the Continental Divide. Elsewhere, near normal temperatures are the prospect.

Precipitation during January, frequently in the form of snow and sleet, is expected to be heavy over the southern half of the nation lying east of the Continental Divide and in the Middle Atlantic states. Light to moderate amounts are anticipated over the remainder of the country.

McClung Gives Program Tuesday At Optimist Club

E. L. McClung, district manager of Prudential Insurance Co. and director of the public relations division of the Chamber of Commerce, presented the program Tuesday noon at the Optimist Club meeting at Bothwell Hotel, when the film, "Matter of Choice," was shown. The film is on the Federal Social Security program and was provided by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, and shown by William Keim, hotel manager.

Prior to the showing of the picture, Richard Witig, former Sedalian who recently returned to Sedalia in the Social Security office here, answered questions on Social Security asked by members of the club.

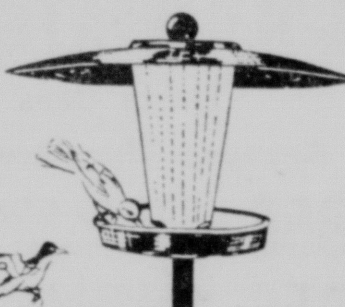

McClung, who was introduced by R. L. Settles, program chairman, stated that people must plan for future opportunities and one of the things in the future is Social Security. He stated that he felt that the people should better understand Social Security, which was intended as the frame work on which to build for security in the retirement age.

The meeting was presided over by Gerald Cecil, president, with invocation by Judge Dimmitt Hoffman. Singing was led by Larry Wanserski, with Miss Lillian Fox at the piano.

TURNING BACK THE YEARS—A lot of Sedalia youngsters enjoyed their sleds during the city's latest snowfall, but not many of them have ever been in an old-fashioned sleigh drawn by a horse. Except for pictures, many of them may never have seen one. But Don Olson, 816 West Third, owner of the Don Olson Stables at the Fairgrounds, acquired the sleigh shown above from Milwaukee, Wis., and took advantage of the whitened fairgrounds to go for a ride. His fine harness horse, Shasta McDonald, did the honors. Olson's companions were Miss Judy Jiedel, 1408 South Barrett, who rides his horses at shows, and Miss Harriett Benson, Kansas City, a visitor at the Jiedel home. (Leroy Street photo)

Decoration Winners at Tipton

By Mrs. T. W. Miller
TIPTON—Johnny Latham, president of the Tipton Chamber of Commerce, announces the winners of the commercial club's outdoor Christmas home decorating contest: Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Needy won first prize of $25; second place, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Johnson, $15, and the winners of third place were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. (Babe) Yontz, $10.

The three winning homes were most attractive in their Christmas motif and the decorations this year in city and country were more outstanding than ever. Judging of the contest was by anonymous persons from out-of-town.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Koechner had with them as their guests Christmas Day their children and families. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Koechner and family, Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Koechner and family, Stillwell, Kan.; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Koechner and family, Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Koechner and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Koechner, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Klein, Sedalia, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Gerke and daughters, and Della and Jimmy of the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Turpin and children spent Christmas Day at Overland Park, Kan., as guests in the home of Mrs. Turpin's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Waisner and family, Darlene, remaining over until Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McVean were at Nevada Christmas Day where they stayed over until Sunday as house guests of Mrs. McVean's parents, Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Todd.

Miss Marilyn Prestage entertained members of her twirling class known as "Marilyn's Marchers" at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Prestage last Saturday afternoon. Members of the class of marchers total 35 and all were at the party except three. Games were played and refreshments served by Miss Prestage, assisted by her mother.

Relatives of KC Minister Reside In This Area

A picture of the Rev. Edward L. Weinrich, who preached his first sermon Sunday as pastor of the University Heights Christian Church in Kansas City on Sunday, appeared in the Kansas City Star Saturday. He is a grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Weinrich, this city, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl V. Weinrich, Marshall. Two aunts, Mrs. Willetta Dempsy and Mrs. J. W. Heckart, and two uncles, E. The article, in part, follows:
The 45-year-old minister came here after serving eight years as pastor of the First Christian Church in North Little Rock, Ark. He succeeds the Rev. Blaine Hyten.

Mr. Weinrich received his AB degree from Johnson Bible College, Kimberlin Heights, Tenn., in 1942 and his master's and divinity degrees from Phillips University, Enid, Okla., of which he is now serving his second three-year term as a trustee.

He served as a student minister at Rogersville, Tenn., and later held regular pastorates at Newport, Tenn., and Wakita, Okla.

Color in Meal Planning

Are you preparing a meal? Then you are the artist. Consider the dark blues, purples and reds of the berries, grape, plum and beet, the bright reds of the pepper, tomato and watermelon; the oranges and yellows of such foods as the carrot, sweet potato, apricot, peach, and egg yolk; the deep green of the leafy vegetables, peas, beans, and broccoli; the whiteness of milk, onion, mashed potato and cooked rice, meat and whole grain cereals, molasses, chocolate and coffee. Use freely of this amazing variety of beautiful colors and enjoy them. Prepare each food carefully to enhance its color, and not carelessly to destroy.

The Art of Personal Efficiency

It is having a goal and mapping out a personal program of how to reach it.

It is organizing our personal life for efficient living in: work, play, love, and worship.

It is making time live for us by making the most of every minute.

It is putting first things first, doing one thing at a time, and developing the art of intensive concentration.

It is experimenting to find the best, easiest, and quickest way of getting things done.

It is breaking big tasks down into their smaller parts, simplifying the complex, finishing the big job one step at a time.

It is guiding our life instead of drifting.

It is setting up personal incentives—promising ourselves rewards for work completed.

Lighting for Televiewing

There are six basic rules for televiewing. If you follow them, TV watching will be more comfortable and more enjoyable.

1. View the television screen in a properly lighted room.

In a dark room your eyes try to adjust in size for the darkness of the room and the brightness of the screen. The eyes tire. Lighting in the room reduces the contrast—difference between the screen and the room background and thus relieves eyestrain.

2. Sit at a proper distance from the TV screen.

There is no hard and fast rule. Sit where you can see the picture best—but not too close. If you sit closer than four feet the picture will not be clear, and you may experience eye discomfort. For adults the comfortable distance is usually from eight to 12 feet from the screen. Children are apt to sit much too close. Keep them at least four feet from the screen.

3. Sit in front of the TV screen. If the screen is viewed from too great an angle there may be considerable distortion of the picture—especially with older sets. Sit as directly in front of the screen as possible.

4. Avoid placing lamps so they are reflected back into your eyes from the screen.

A suggested method of checking is to turn lamps on with the TV off. Sit in the various viewing positions. If you can see a lighted lamp reflected from the darkened screen that light will be an annoyance when the TV set is on. Either rearrange the lamps or the viewing positions.

5. Avoid lamp shades brighter than the screen.

It is usually desirable to use opaque shades on lamps in the TV viewing area. These are shades which do not permit the passage of light. Some shades which permit a little light to pass through and are not too glaring may be used.

6. Avoid lighting which falls directly on the screen.

If light from a lamp or any other light source falls directly on the screen it will "fade" the picture. The picture will not be sharp and clear. Televiewing will be uncomfortable.

If your TV set is placed against a dark-colored wall, a bulb behind the set lightens the area around the screen for more comfortable viewing.

Have your TV set checked periodically. A flickering pattern and a dull picture makes extra eye work. If you have to view the screen in a darkened room to get a good picture, have the set adjusted.

Televiewing can be pleasant, comfortable entertainment—if you have proper lighting.

How to Recover Men Is Biggest Space Problem

MOSCOW (AP) — The Russians say the chief unsolved problem in sending men cruising among the planets is how to bring them down again.

Soviet scientists expressed this view Tuesday as they reported cosmic rocket Mecha was still speeding toward an orbit around the sun. One physicist, Prof. Vladimir Dobronravov, commented:

"A perfectly realistic foundation for the development of interplanetary travel already exists and in the near future man can set foot on other planets."

During the 62 hours and 370,960 miles that Mecha was radioing information back to earth, Dobronravov said, its internal temperature and pressure remained within set bounds. The temperature had been reported earlier at 50 to 60 degrees.

This means Russia soon will know how to create proper climatic conditions for men inside rockets, Dobronravov claimed.

But the re-entry problem of getting man back through the earth's atmosphere remains, Vice President Alexander Topchiev of the Soviet Academy of Sciences told the news conference.

The two main problems of re-entry are protecting a rocket from air friction, which might burn it up like a meteor, and braking its fall so it does not simply smash into the earth.

Reported more than half a million miles from earth Tuesday, Mecha is expected to go into orbit around the sun today or Thursday. With its radios dead, however, there is no longer any way of tracking the rocket.

Try Cheese For a Dessert Change

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

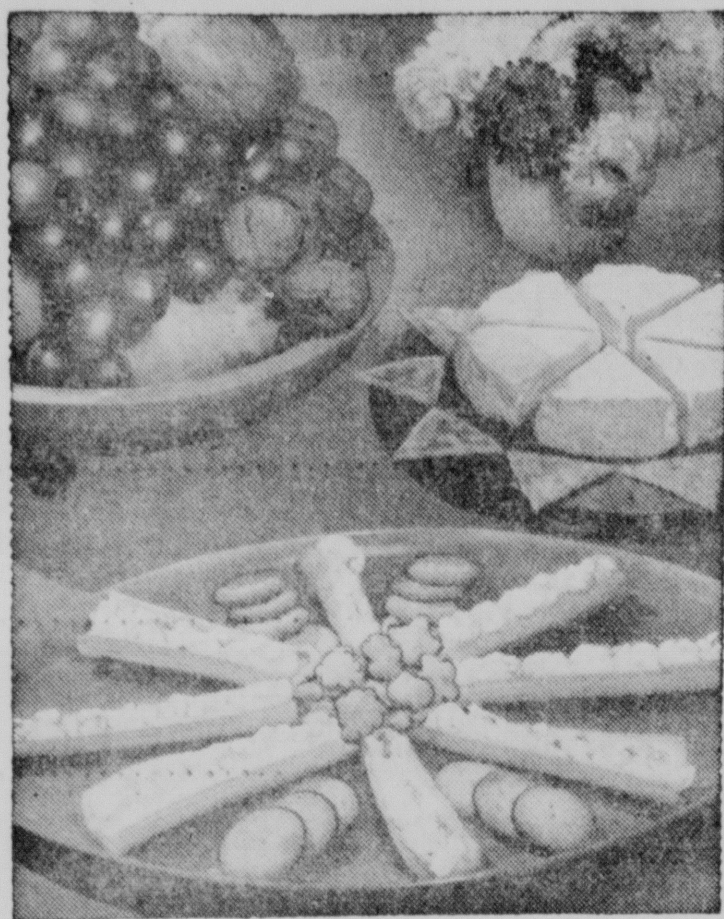

Cheese, for dessert and snacktime, is in fashion.

Americans traveling abroad have discovered how good intriguing varieties of cheese taste when they are served at the end of a meal. Others of us, conscious of nutrition and calories, like to offer cheese at snacktime.

One of the most delightful varieties of cheese is Camembert. Although French in origin, it has been made in this country. Because it's a whole milk cheese, it supplies vitamin A; like other cheese it also offers protein of the best quality, calcium and riboflavin (one of the B vitamins). A small (1 1/4 ounces) wedge of Camembert plus an apple will give you valuable nutrients and together they contain only half the calories of, say, a piece of pie.

If you want to taste this delectable cheese at its best, allow it to stand at room temperature before serving. And be sure to eat its slightly crusty rind—it's edible and delicious. The inner creamy portion of the cheese—almost fluid when fully ripe—has a melting quality on the tongue.

Camembert, like other soft cheese, should be refrigerated until you are ready to serve it. If you buy it in a half-circular box, containing three foil-wrapped wedges, keep it in this covered container during the refrigeration. You'll notice that the box is stamped with a month and a day, with CHEESE SPECIAL: Here's Camembert set out on celery stalks and ready as a delightful snack. In its most customary serving, the cheese is a fine windup to a meal, spread on crackers and consumed with an apple or any fresh fruit.

the direction that the cheese because Camembert is a "continuously ripening" cheese! Its surface mold keeps ripening it, changing its chalky color to a golden one, softening its texture and developing its flavor.

When recently we stuffed celery with a Camembert mixture it made a big hit with our family and friends. And the combination can do triple duty. You may serve it as a first course with tomato juice or some other beverage. Or you may arrange it on salad greens accompanied by French dressing as your salad course. Or you can serve it along with crackers, fruit and nuts at snacktime.

CAMEMBERT STUFFED CELERY

Ingredients: 1 package (3 ounces) cream cheese, 2 wedges (1 1/4 ounces each) Camembert cheese, 2 to 3 small stalks of white celery, paprika, halved Macadamia nuts.

Method: Have cream cheese and Camembert at room temperature; cream together and force through a fine sieve; refrigerate. Break stalk of celery into branches, wash and dry thoroughly. Trim, but leave some of the leafy tops on the small branches near the heart. Partly fill celery branches with cheese mixture. Sprinkle with paprika. Garnish with halved Macadamia nuts, pressing them down. Celery may be cut into 3-inch wedges before or after stuffing if desired.

The Patient—Earth

IGY Is Greatest Physical Checkup In World History

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—IGY brought the greatest physical checkup in all history.

The patient—our planet earth. For 18 months, scientists probed and poked at the earth with diagnostic instruments ranging from thermometers to orbiting satellites.

They found high altitude titanic winds of 200 to 300 miles an hour, and places where the earth's skin or crust is only 2½ miles thick. They charted great rivers of electricity flowing through earth crust and upper air.

These are but some early results. It may take 25 years or more to make the most significant diagnoses from the hundreds of millions of facts gathered.

IGY—the International Geophysical Year—is formally ended. This world scientific effort cost about 750 million dollars, and twice that if you include ships, planes and other support.

But its work continues in most major aspects under the title IGC-59, meaning International Geophysical Cooperation in 1959, to extend man's knowledge of his planet.

A great ocean of air is earth's lung for human life.

Rockets indicated winds of several hundred miles per hour up where the air is terribly thin and highly electrified.

By night, earth wears a halo of dim light, the airglow, which is mostly pale green. It seems to occur in patches or cells, moving with average speed of 200 miles an hour at a 60-mile height, reports Dr. Franklin E. Roach of the National Bureau of Standards at Boulder, Colo.

Green airglow comes from oxygen atoms, with some yellow glow atoms of lithium—presumably shot up by nuclear testing.

Radiation streaming from the sun or from particles trapped magnetically above the earth, cause the Northern and Southern Lights, or auroras.

But a man-made aurora was detected with one Pacific nuclear test. Scientists theorize a blast field enough to allow some trapped particles to stream down on earth, understanding of air-earth inter-IGY men confirmed the existence of the equatorial electrojet, a powerful electric current flowing in daylight hours only above the earth's magnetic equator. Similar currents presumably circle both Poles. They offer new insight upon solar effects on magnetic fields.

Catching a great solar flare in action last Feb. 10-11, many scientists measured its varied, powerful effects upon earth.

Great currents of electricity flowed through the earth's crust as the earth's horizontal magnetic field strengthened. This was apparently induced by electrical currents in the atmosphere. Balloons detected X-rays within some 20 miles of the earth's surface.

Through chains of magnetic stations, some IGY scientists concentrated on tracing local and surface magnetic variations induced from electro-magnetic events in the upper air, seeking clearer reactions.

Probing the sky with radio fingers, scientists found the ionization or electrification of the upper air persists over the South Pole even during the long polar night when the sun is down. Apparently, great clouds of electrons drift in slowly from lower latitudes. Simple absence of sunshine does not remove the ionosphere.

Radio studies of the ionosphere, and the discovery that radio signals can be received from earth satellites at unexpectedly long distances, offer clues to new methods of radio communication.

Aground, seismologists used manmade explosions and the shock signals from natural earthquakes to fill in their understanding of the earth's interior and its crust. Shocks from underground A-bomb tests offered a new tool for doing this.

Seismic soundings detected the thinnest crust of the earth yet discovered under the seas—2½ miles —and also the thickest undersea crust—9 miles deep.

The pull of gravity was measured over 75 per cent of the sea surface, and over vast distances on land—adding up ultimately to a far more accurate picture of the earth's gravity, and from that a better conception of the real shape of the earth.

The moon and the sun, through gravity, cause tides not only on the oceans, but also on the land—actually creating wavy bulges in the earth's crust ranging up to eight to 15 inches. One IGY goal was to learn how much the earth and sea tides may be in phase.

Glaciologists from 28 nations checked all the earth's ice areas. They sampled down through layers of ancient ice for clues to past and present climatic changes, to learn whether glaciers are advancing or retreating, and where, and hoped to help pinpoint causes of ice ages and glacier growth.

The thirst for knowledge launched by IGY is not satisfied. Organizations of scientists have formed special new committees to push on, especially in cooperative studies on the oceans, Antarctica, and space science. The watching of the sun will continue, and so will most of the other searchings, though at less intensified an effort.

IGY is helping to satisfy man's curiosity about his world, and stimulates his curiosity the more. It promises to confer great benefits, not only material, but far beyond.

For as Harvard astronomer Dr. Fred Whipple remarked: "Securing a better concept of what life means in the universe might lead humans to settle their differences."
